GUARDIAN ANGEL PROGRAM Our Guardian Angel program promotes generosity and helping others by encouraging random acts of kindness. By performing small tasks for others, or leaving little gifts for them, they can feel good about themselves and know that they are bringing joy to other people. During the week the girls pick one camper to secretly watch over. Some examples of the Guardian Angel program include: leaving stickers, notes, and drawing pictures.

DRESS CODE Anchor Camp promotes and enforces a Dress Code policy. We do not allow two-piece bathing suits, mini shorts, tight clothing, spaghetti straps or low-cut tops, or tops that show off the midriff area. Any shorts worn at camp, whether athletic or not, need to be the length of a handspan above the knee. Any pants or legging shorts that are tight should be worn with a shirt covering the bum. Please do not send your daughter's best shorts, shirts, or jeans to camp.

LICE Due to cabin sleeping arrangement and close contact with other campers, please check your camper's hair for lice BEFORE sending her to camp. We will be doing random checks upon arrival to ensure no lice enters the campsite. If lice are detected, we will need to send the camper home until the lice has been treated. Thank you for your understanding. The following website gives step by step instructions on how to inspect your child's head for lice.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

WHY IS THERE A DRESS CODE? The dress code at Anchor Camp has been established to help our young women live modesty in their clothing so as to reflect the dignity of their bodies. Tight clothes or shorts that are very short reveal much of the intimate of a person's body. While our campers are children and young ladies now, this attitude of modesty in a positive sense sets them on a trajectory of living modesty and respect of their own bodies and others into their future as grown women and leaders of tomorrow.

MAY I BRING ELECTRONICS TO CAMP? No. Video games, electronics and portable music devices are not allowed at the camp as they promote social isolation. We want the girls to have a positive, socially engaging, experience. Cell phones must be turned in to the camp directors upon arrival and may be picked up prior to departure.

IS THERE A LOST AND FOUND? We keep a lost and found bin at the camp that gets emptied at the end of the week. If items are not claimed, they are donated. Please do not bring valuables to the camp AS LOST ITEMS ARE LOST. Please LABEL EVERYTHING!

WHO DO I CONTACT IF I HAVE QUESTIONS PRIOR TO CAMP? For enquiries prior to camp, please contact camp coordinators: Joanna Simpson jmsimpson@gmail.com, 519-281-5412 (London)
